Brief Overview of School

Clinton Grove Elementary School, a boutique school, with a rich historical influence within the Clinton, MD community. CGES is noted for being one of the first schools built in the region to educate African-American children. We serve approximately 250 students of varying abilities in grades K-5, affording teachers smaller class sizes for more focused and personalized instruction. We authentically believe in the boundless potential of young minds and understands the power of partnering with parents to advance student learning.
